

Guests must decide who dunnit

A famous Hollywood star has been murdered - so who dunnit? That's what guests will have to work out at the Majestic Theatre's Murder Mystery dinner on Saturday, June 28.

The event is a fundraiser for the theatre's popular Kids' Holiday Program and organisers promise a night of intrigue, accusation, deception, humour and sleuthing as the "Hollywood Scandal" unfolds.

Guests are asked to dress in Hollywood style - which allows for just about anything. They'll be working in teams of eight to uncover the murderer, with each guest allocated a role on arrival. Mayor Bob Abbot will be the special guest on the night.

The admission price of $55 includes canapes on arrival and a sumptuous two-course dinner, with raffles and games to add to the occasion.

The next Majestic Theatre Kids' Holiday Program will run from July 8 to 11, with workshops, life shows and of course some silent movie comedy. Hip hop dancing, storytelling, magic and mask making, plaster painting and juggling are among the activities being offered.

Bookings for the murder mystery night and the kids' program can be made now on 5485 2330.
